| Class | Child's Name                              | Type of Merit                             | Merit   |
|-------|---|---|---|
| 3E    | Nicole                                    | Resilient & reflective                    | Nicole has been working really hard recently in maths, showing great resilience. She has listened carefully to help from teachers and has reflected well.   |
|       | Luke                                      | Reflective                                | Luke has been trying to remember to put his hand up in class more and consider how calling out and talking can distract others. Well done Luke, keep it up!   |
| 3H    | Fateh Duleep and Manisha                  | Relationships                             | Fateh Duleep and Manisha have demonstrated excellent relationships by supporting and helping other children in the class with their learning. Thank you and keep it up.   |
| 3H    | Oscar                                     | Resilience and Relationships              | Oscar has worked hard to develop his resilience in class and during break times. He is able to work well with others and is now confidently giving others in front of the class.  |
| 4D    | Gerta, Georgiabel and Engin               | Resilient and Reflective                  | Georgiabel, Gerta and Engin have shown great resilience during their reading and comprehension club. They always engage fully with each session and have shown fantastic progress accordingly. Keep it up, Mr Johnston                                    |
| 4K    | Harshitha, Mishika, Nikki, Samy and Ritik | All 5R's                                  | These children are role models of 4K. They are respectful and polite towards everyone. Their progress in Year 4 has been outstanding, they are always focussed and trying their best in every lesson. I am very proud of you all!                         |
| 4U    | Vivaan, Noah, Rushil and Angel            | Resilient, Reflective and Resourceful     | These children really impressed us in PE this week. They pushed themselves to try different sequences of jumps to move across a space and all beat their personal bests throughout the lesson.  |
|       | Sheryl and Prisha                         | Resourceful, Reflective and Relationships | During our trip to The National Maritime museum, Sheryl and Prisha were really engaged and requested challenges and questions from me to extend their learning in each exhibition.  |
| 5F    | Ishan                                     | Resilient                                 | In a moment of difficulty, Ishan stayed calm and was able to regulate his emotions and not retaliate. He demonstrated a brilliant example of maturity for his peers. Last week, he also helped pupils in 4U all day with their learning. Thank you Ishan! |
|       | Aarush                                    | Reflective                                | Aarush has reflected on his behaviour this week and has clearly been striving to make an improvement. This has been noticed by the  |

|     |  |   | adults and he deserves a merit for this great example of caring about self-improvement and getting better. Well done Aarush!   |
| 5L  | Hafsa  | Resourceful and Reflective                  | Hafsa wrote some excellent and insightful comments about her time in year 5 in our computing lesson this week. She then kindly went and helped to edit other people's learning as well. Thank you!   |
|     | Kanav  | Relationships and resourceful               | Kanav has been extremely helpful in class this week. He has willingly given out books at the beginning of the day and has chosen to help others when he has completed his learning. Thank you for the kindness that you have shown to 5L, Kanav.   |
| 5P  | Saam   | All 5Rs                                     | Saam sets a great example in all that he does at Park Hill. The learning that he produces is outstanding and he goes above and beyond to help his friends. Well done Saam, keep going!   |
|     | Aleema   | Reflective                                  | I have been particularly impressed with Aleema's contribution in class discussions this week as well as her focus when completing learning. This has also been noticed by multiple teachers. Well done for sharing ideas with the class so confidently, keep it up!  |
| 6I  | Aarush   | Resilient and all 5R's                      | I am so PROUD of Aarush and his amazing perseverance in his writing this week. He has not complained once about this process and does it with a smile on his face. And to top it all off-he has started his rehearsals and is performing to such a high standard. Finally a few children have nominated him to win a merit as he has been motivating them to try their best in rehearsals.WHAT A SUPERSTAR YOU ARE! |
|     | Siva   | Resourceful                                 | What an actor you are. Siva has a silent role for the year 6 production and has made it his own. He has understood the character really well and stood out in all rehearsals this week. Well done and keep it up!  |
| 6M  | William  | Reflective                                  | Well done William for persevering with your evacuation writing, you listened well to feedback and wrote a very interesting narrative story. You were also very impressive in your auditions for the production and hope you can show your full potential in the rehearsals and the shows. Keep it up!  |
| ECO | Jack 3GIsabelle 3GJunior 3ESachita 3EStella 3EZahra 3ESid 3HViraj 3H | Respectful and Resourceful Pupil Leadership | Thank you very much from Mrs Cooper and Mrs Stott for helping at the Eco Fair on Monday after school. You were amazing and spoke to the adults so respectfully. True ambassadors for the school. Thank you!  |
