Class	Child's Name	Type of Merit	Merit
3E	Jake	Resilience	Jake showed great resilience during Tuesday's class events for Sports Day. He tried his best and didn't give up. Well done Jake!
	Kaylie	Resilience	Kaylie has become much more independent in her writing. It has been great to see Kaylie attempting to write without adult support and for her to be really proud of what she has written.
3G	Sumaiyah & Isabelle	Resilience	These girls have been super resilient recently and I wanted them to know that their efforts are being recognised! Keep up that excellent resilience girls - you can do anything!
	Kara	Resilience	Kara joined us last week and has made a great start at PHJS. Welcome Kara and we are so happy to have you at our school!
3H	Shivaan	Reflective	Shivaan has reflected carefully on feedback he has been given and has been working really hard to improve his writing.
	Arav	All 5Rs	Arav is a brilliant role model for 3H. He tries his best in every lesson and has made wonderful progress this year.
4D	Ali Raza	Relationships	Ali Raza has settled in really well in 4D. He has used his speaking skills to get to know everyone in the class and has started participating in class discussions. Welcome to PHJS!
	Anise, Nell, Yaseen, Engin and Maira	Resilient	These children have demonstrated fantastic resilience during Sports Day. I am very proud of you all.
4K	Vaseegaran and Vivaan	Resilience	Both the boys have impressed me with their enthusiastic participation in learning Statistics this week, they ensured they are challenging themselves and attempted all the digging deeper questions. Well done boys!
	Eleni and Jaylen	Resilience	Eleni and Jaylen demonstrated great understanding of the Water cycle in our science lesson, they put in great efforts to draw the diagram of the water cycle with all the labellings.
	Amir	Relationship	Amir kindly offered to swap a race during Sports day with a fellow classmate, Thanks Amir!

4U	Zayn, and Anvita	Resilience, relationships and problem solving.	Zayn didn't think he was going to be at sports day, but when he knew he was going to be in he came and let me know days before the day so that we could sort things out. Anvita realised that we needed someone from Flower to swap events and volunteered to swap her event so that he could do this.
	Molinae, Angel and Arthur	Relationships	Molinae Angel and Arthur were so encouraging to the rest of their teams in the first part of sports day. All three of them gave their best in all of the activities and were ready to take part in any activity with a positive mindset! Well done.
Special Merit	Anise, Bosley, Grayson, Mia and Sloane	Helpfulness and Respect for the school environment	Thank you from Miss Waxer for being super helpers after The Colour Run, clearing the field and making sure it all looked clean and tidy afterwards. Thank you!
5F	Eunice	Respectful and relationships	Eunice has recently joined us. During last week she welcomed children from 5P & 5L into 5F when the others were away on the residential. She showed great kindness and worked really well with others on a school project.
	Riya	Respectful and resilient	Riya recently had a cast for her fractured arm, but she managed to persevere and complete all of her assessments regardless. All whilst having a huge smile on her face.
5P	Mihika, Nandhika and Gabi	Relationships and Reflective	Mihika, Nandhika and Gabi really shone at Kingswood this year. They were getting stuck into all the activities, going above and beyond to encourage their peers to try everything. Thank you girls for setting such a great example with big smiles on your face!
6A	Mariam Vivan Kamsy Ahmed	Relationships	Despite there only being four children in their house for class sports day, these children tried their best to collaborate and show fantastic sportsmanship. Well done!
	Joshua Vinuka Yazhini	Respectful	These children continue to shine whilst practising for our production. Even when they are not on stage they are joining in with all the songs and giving it their best.
6I	Helena, Aratrika, Aarush, Siva and Diyaan	Relationships	These children have excelled so much during the production. They have learnt all their lines off by heart and have even improvised certain lines to bring the character to life. It is great seeing them on the stage acting so dramatically and even helping their peers when they are practising. WELL DONE
	Samanta and Layla	Resourceful	These children have stepped in at the last minute to take on the roles of stage directors and remembering and helping to bring items on/off the stage. They are even standing for such a long time holding items in place for the show.

6M	William	Reflective	I am really pleased with how William has reflected and continues to show respect and a positive attitude to different parts of the curriculum. You have been very expressive and captivating when on stage in your role and your participation on sports day was motivating. Well done and please keep it up!
	Vamika	Resilient	Watching Vamika do the tug of war was an inspiration. She gave it her all and showed every ounce of determination to win this event. It was inspiring to watch her and please continue to be resilient in everything that you do. I am very proud of you.
