Class	Child's Name	Type of Merit	Merit
3E	Stella and Zahra	Respect for the Earth	From Mrs Cooper - thank you to Stella and Zahra for collecting the litter pickers for several days in a row this week to make our school environment a cleaner place. Not only that, they also brought them back again so they are safe to be used for another day. Thank you!
	Oluwatomisin (Tomi)	Reflective	Tomi regularly takes part in class discussions and gives insightful responses that help to extend the learning of others, as well as his own. Thank you for being someone that Miss Emery can rely on.
3G	Kavin	Reflective	Kavin has reflected on comments from me to improve his learning and concentration - keep it up, Kavin!
	Himani	All 5Rs	Himani is absolutely awesome! She is kind to everyone and shows constant respect. She is hardworking and a great member of 3G!
3H	Marjan and Kieron	Reflective	Marjan and Kieron have impressed me with their hard work and focus during lessons this week. I have noticed a huge improvement. As a result, they were both able to produce an excellent set of instructions on how to survive school in the victorian times.
4D	Harry, Beau, Elijah and Nell	Resilient and Reflective	Mrs Dimitrova has been very impressed with Elijah, Harry, Beau and Nell this week. They have been concentrating very well in lessons and produced amazing learning. Well done, keep it up.
4K	Saketh and Ryan	Resilience	Saketh and Ryan have impressed me with their amazing explanations using STEM sentences while sharing their answers in the Maths lessons.
	Vivi	Reflective	Vivi has shown great progress in her writing, she has acted on the feedback and demonstrated use of correct sentence structure. Well done, Vivi!
Year 4	Anise, Shreyanshi, Esha, Ritika, Dhruvi, Anvita, Samy, Nikki and Mishika	Resourceful	These Year 4 girls participated enthusiastically in a small History project, where they researched, collected important facts about Croydon and created an extraordinary display. This display has Croydon's timeline, important historical buildings and many other interesting facts. Well done girls, impressive work!

4U	Dhruvika, Angel, Molinae, Janice	Reflective and creativity	During our science lesson this week this group extended themselves by using their maths to problem solve and then shared their results with the class. They showed their creativity and Dhruvika made a suggestion of how to blast a rocket (Powered by water and air) even higher! Well done team.
	Zak and Loreea	Reflective	In class Zak has been more engaged with the class discussion adding excellent suggestions and answers during the lessons. Loreea has been reflective in how she is more focused on her learning and making sure that she is getting more written in class time.
5F	Ishan	Relationships	In a tricky lesson where we learned how to use protractors, Ishan was so wonderful and helpful with his partner -they were working together to measure the angles beautifully. Thank you for being a brilliant buddy Ishan!
	Levi	Resilient	After practising his handwriting Levi was able to produce a beautiful published version of his Battle of Marathon newspaper sheet, all independently. His writing and spelling has progressed so much, well done for your efforts Levi
5L	Olive	Resilient and Reflective	Olive has worked really hard this week on the joins of her hand writing and has even practised at home. The result has been some excellent cursive handwriting in her book. Well done! Keep it up Olive!
	Akshaj and Maxwell	Resourceful	Thank you to Maxwell and Akshaj for being so resourceful in offering to reinstate a path in the outdoor learning area that was getting overgrown. They used shovels to clear away grassland and large branches to create a border for the path. Great effort gentlemen!
5P	Ayush	Reflective	We have noticed a huge change in Ayush's learning choices both in the classroom and on the playground. Ayush has taken time to reflect on feedback to make good choices and is striving to build stronger relationships with his peers. Well done Ayush - keep it up!
	Miranda	Reflective	Miranda is contributing some fantastic answers in class and is more keen to share her ideas with her peers. Thank you for putting your hand up so much and sharing good practice!
6A 6I 6M	All of year 6            Congratulations to all of Year 6 on your hard work and progress. You have all demonstrated exceptional commitment and dedication in your revision groups, and your teachers are incredibly proud. Keep up the fantastic effort, stay confident, and with your focus and perseverance, there is no doubt that you will absolutely SMASH it next week!!! Best of luck! PHJS PLEASE REPEAT: GOOD LUCK YEAR 6!
